

LARRY JOHNSEN

Head Football Coach 1979 – 1986

LARRY JOHNSEN, SR.

Was interim head coach at Augustana and won the conference title.

He has coached in state finals 7 times for Geneseo.

Is a member of the Illinois High School Coaches
Hall of Fame.

Larry Johnsen's commitment to excellence for the storied Geneseo Green Machine still continues to impact young lives and the community in 2014 as an assistant to his son, Larry Johnsen, Jr. He directed the Leafs to a state title in 1982 and a runner-up finish the previous season. Johnsen, Sr. also was an assistant for state title teams in 1976, 1977, and 1978 before taking over as head coach at GHS.

Johnsen moved on to Augustana as a top assistant in 1987 where the Vikings continue to hold distinction as one of the top programs in NCAA Division III. As interim head coach in 1999 Johnsen guided Augie to a CCIW championship.
